CONF005244

in molestation

A former Grandfield High School custodian pleaded guilty Tuesday to molesting a teen-age boy in the school's cafeteria almost a year ago.

Sentencing for Frank Ray Anderson, 57, Grandfield, was continued until March 1, according to a secretary in the Tillman County District Attorney's office.

Anderson previously pleaded guilty to the charge back in July 1990, but then withdrew the plea before formal sentencing, the secretary said. She would not comment on whether prosecutors recommended a sentence and Assistant District Attorney Kelly Roberts refused to comment on the case.

The Tillman County Court Clerk's Office also refused to provide information from the court record over the telephone.

Anderson was accused of sodomizing a 16-year-old boy in the school kitchen on Feb. 26, 1990. The school superintendent, Darrell Britte, walked in while the molestation was occurring, according to a police report. Anderson immediately resigned from his post at the school as chief custodian.

Dear Paul:

This letter is pertaining to Frank R. Anderson. He was indicted two weeks ago for hand molestation of a 15-year-old retarded youth at the local high school. Based on what we have been told, this has been ongoing for the past three years.

Anderson was registered with Pack 132. Their recharter was not updated; therefore, Anderson was not reregistered in October of 1989. He currently is not registered with the B.S.A. and will never be registered again.

So far there have been no newspaper articles written on this matter. There are yet no court records available. I will make every effort to keep you posted on future information pertaining to this case.

Sincerely yours,
